

AFIK SCHREIBER

Industrial Design Student

About Me

I'm an industrial design student, in my final year of studies in Shenkar College, Tel Aviv.

I'm always striving to learn, develop and challenge myself in each aspect of design I take upon myself.

I'm not afraid of hard work and each new product I complete fills me with great excitement!

I'm passionate about design that combines technology, and focuses on shaping the future and present.
